Class Feed

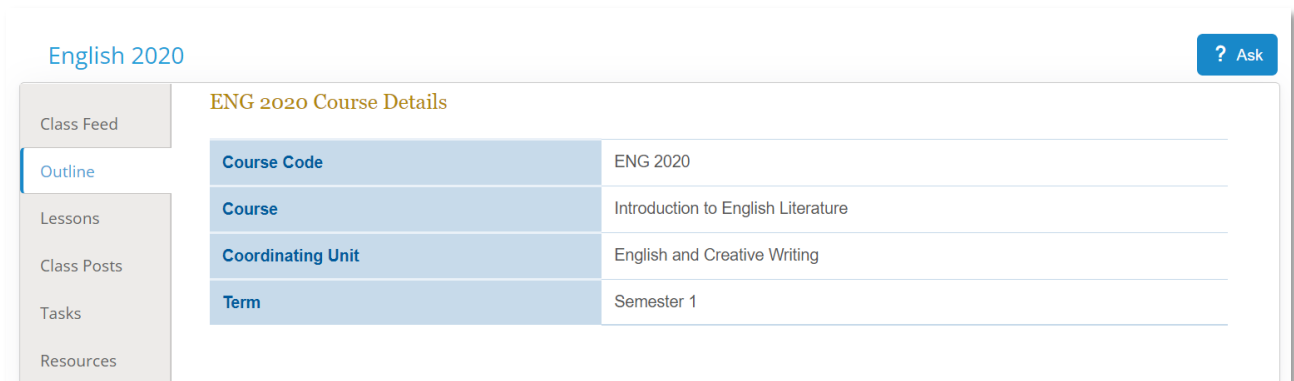

The left-hand section of the Class Feed contains recent activity for the class. By default this will contain:

- A preview of Lesson Notes and files attached to lessons
- Assessment Tasks that are set, due or published
- Class Posts created or replied to

To filter the content of your Class Feed click View Options.

On the right of the screen is a list of lessons for the class with the current lesson selected. This list displays a count of plans/files attached to each lesson and highlights lessons that have not had the roll marked.

I thought that these chapters were very helpful for the overall understanding of Sarah. Learning about her backstory helps to understand why she acts the way she does.

The Class Posts tab shows all the group posts for this class. To respond to a post, click on the top message of that post and click Reply.

Clicking the Messaging button will take you to your Inbox.

Ask Questions or Create Diary Notes

? Ask 📝 Note

To send a message to the teacher of the class, click on the Ask button in the top-right of any tab on the Class Page.

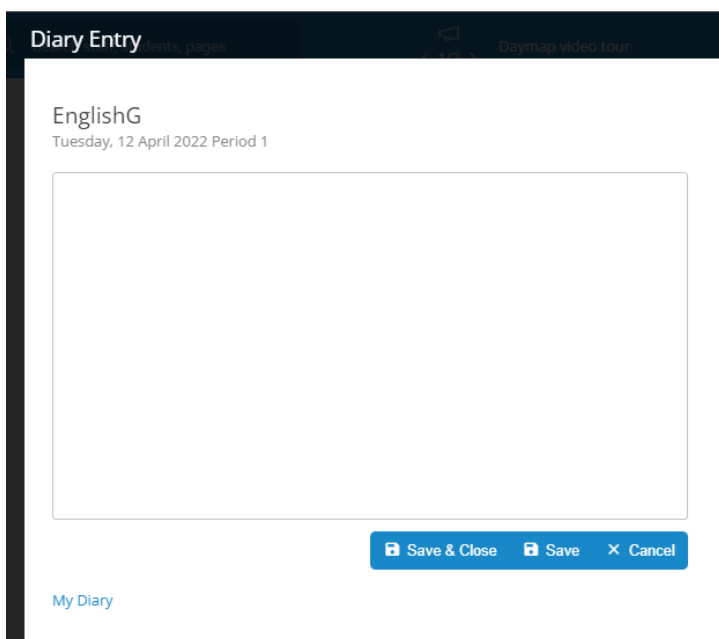

This will bring up a window where you can create and send a message to the teacher of that class.

To add a Diary Note for that lesson click Note in the top-right of any tab on the Class Page.

This will open a window where a Diary Note can be created.

The screenshot shows a dialog box titled "Diary Entry". The class name "EnglishG" is at the top, followed by the date and period "Tuesday, 12 April 2022 Period 1". A large text input area is provided for the diary entry. At the bottom right, there are three buttons: "Save & Close" with a floppy disk icon, "Save" with a floppy disk icon, and "Cancel" with an 'X' icon. The text "My Diary" is visible in the bottom left corner of the dialog.
